

Dr. Jean Rawlings Sumner is Dean of Mercer University School of Medicine (MUSM). She practiced internal medicine in Washington and Johnson Counties for over 25 years. Dr. Sumner is a third generation Georgia physician and is committed to rural health. She was a member of the first class at MUSM and has served on multiple state boards including Mental Health and Developmental Disabilities, State Medical Education Board, Public Health Advisory Committee, and Georgia Composite Board of Medicine where she served as President and Medical Director. In addition to her other work, Dr. Sumner has served as a member of the Federation of State Boards of Medicine S.M.A.R.T. workgroup to help establish standards for telehealth. . She is married to Joe Sumner, a pharmacist, and they have two children and four granddaughters. Dr. Sumner enjoys raising chickens, fishing, art, and creating pottery.